Kankalay School, Port Loko

Taken yesterday afternoon showing the gable ends completed and the majority of the roof timbers in place

The original Crowdfunder target was £6,000. The appeal “Online” still stands at £1,830 BUT I have received a further £1,500 in “offline” donations. In the last few days I have had a major boost with a £1,000 donation from a group of companies based in Oxford and a £2,000 donation from a Charitable Trust, who have been supporting my work since 2008. This means that we have generated a total of £5,330.

The Crowdfunder closes at 11am this Friday and it would be GREAT if we could reach the target.

THANKS to everyone who has already donated, helping make the progress to this current stage.

Another tranche of money will be transferred tomorrow so that the roofing work can continue
IF we surpass our target, surplus funds will be allocated to build 2 additional classrooms at the Banbury International School in memory of Fayia, who had obtained a quote for this project the week before his passing
